

Contents

Foreword by the Hon. Justice Michael Kirby AC, CMG	vii
Introduction by Margaret Secombe and Joseph Zajda	1
Part I: Cultural Diversity in Australia
1. Who is an Australian? Identity, Core Values and the Resilience of Culture	11
2. Culture, Ethnicity and Education: Multiculturalism in a Plural Society	51
3. Language - A Bridge or a Barrier? Languages and Education in Australia from an Intercultural Perspective	71
Part II: Core Values and Cultural Interaction
4. Core Values and Cultural Identity	105
5. Cultural Interaction in Plural Societies	125
6. Social Systems in Plural Societies	139
Part III: Studies in Australian Pluralism
7. Italian Language and Culture in South Australia: A Memoir Approach	161
8. Greek-Australians: A Question of Survival in Multicultural Australia	193
9. Language Activation and Evaluation among Chinese and Indian Origin Students in Adelaide	205
Part IV: Tradition, Education and Change
10. The Concept of Tradition: A Humanistic Interpretation	227
11. Modernity and Tradition: Asian Cultures and Scientific Development	243
12. Tradition, Core Values and Intercultural Development in Plural Societies	257
13. Postscript: Overview of Humanistic Sociology	283
Index	309