

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

The Imperative for Environment Education

James Bowen

3

PART I: OUR ENDANGERED ENVIRONMENT

1. The Advent of Ecocrisis

Harry F. Recher

17

The Protected Planet

R.D. Walsh and Helen Duffy

20

The Warming Planet

R.D. Walsh and Helen Duffy

28

2. Educational Imperatives for the Twenty-First Century: Environmental Literacy and Ecological Understanding

James Bowen

35

Environmental Studies for Australian Schools

Max Day

44

University Research and the Environment:

The Fundamental Questions Program

Stephen Boyden

54

PART II: A FRAMEWORK FOR CHANGE

3. Ecology: the Evolving Science

Roger Kitching

61

Appreciating Wetlands

Brian Gilligan

70

4. Ethics and Environmental Education

Robert Elliot

79

Heritage Appreciation

Margarita Bowen

82

The Built Environment Education Program

Judy Vulker

92

5. Teaching Green: Education as if the Environment Matters
Margarita Bowen	105
Earth Education: Learning to Live More Lightly
Meg Keen	108
Natural Areas: Educational Tools for Environmental Action
Kerry Press	118

PART III: A PROGRAM FOR ACTION

6. Reconstructing the Curriculum for Environmental Responsibility
Ian Robottom	129
After Shock: An Aboriginal Perspective on the Environment
Joan Winch	135
Empowering Students and Saving the Environment
Dallas Kinnear	141
7. Education for Understanding: Biohistory as the New Integrative Discipline
Stephen Boyden	155
8. Environment Education in Practice: The Great Barrier Reef as a Significant Case Study
Kathryn Jenkins	161
The Great Barrier Reef: An Educational Success Story
Ray Neale	170
Introducing the New Left to the Old: Environmental Studies at Capricornia
Robert Newby, Sheila Payne and Lesley Warner	177
9. The Challenge of Teaching Ecology
John A. Harris and John M. Dearn	183
A Turning Point in Social Education
David Dufty	189
Notes and References	198